Unit 534 Newsletter

March 2007

Editorial

This month we have a Chatter Extra. The results of the 2006 Mini-McKinney and the Ace of Clubs awards are on pages 5 and 6. The presentations will be at the next unit game, April 15th. Congratulations to all winners.

As we are experimenting with the new form of the Chatter, you will now notice that the calendar now is from March 15th to April 15th. I had a chance to speak to Dennis Boomgaarden the other day and he feels grateful that all the bad weather back east has by-past him. He plays bridge 3 times a week in a club with as many as 18-22 tables at least twice daily!! I had called him to get the list of special games for Jan to June 2007 which he did not have. I will have them for the next press run of the Chatter in April. The Nationals are now in progress in St. Louis and several interesting hand have come up. One is the hand of the month. Anyone wishing to read the Bulletins from these Nationals can go to the ACBL web site www.acbl.org and on the main page is the link to the bulletins.

Hand of the Month

All my own fault!

By Barry Rigal

Keith Garber gave me a deal where he had missed a sure way to set a partscore, and he had suffered the ultimate indignity of being squeezed at trick five. Garber was playing with Ruth Stover against Patty Cayne and Jacqui Mitchell.

Dealer: North

Mitchell's weak jump response might not meet with the approval of the purists, but it got the job done.

When dummy came down on the ♠K lead, Garber decided to play for spade ruffs by shifting to the ♠10. A heart shift would work better. Declarer put up the ♠K and Stover cashed her three spade tricks, as Garber let go of a club. Now she exited with the ♠9 – a winner which squeezed Garber. (A heart shift would still have done the trick.)

If he ruffed, declarer could overruff, draw trumps and crossruff. If he threw a diamond, the suit would ruff out, and a second club would let that suit ruff out.

Maurine Adelsperger and Doreen Colee have passed away. On Saturday February 24th Ray Knox was driving his golf cart to the lake at Golden Era Golf Course in San Jacinto when he suffered a heart attack. He lost control of the golf cart and drove into the lake. He was trying to walk out of the lake when he collapsed. Other golfers pulled him out of the lake but he had passed away. The police are holding his body pending investigations.

Person of the Month by Jeannie Eberle

I hope you recognized Joel Rehagen as last month's family man with ten grandchildren. For March let's meet another Californian native who was born in Los Angeles. She loved to read and learned at an early age, preferring fairy tales as a child. She graduated from Inglewood high school at seventeen and married her high school sweetheart. They had a daughter and when she needed to go to work, her mother was the finest of baby sitters. She worked for Bob Finch, a Nixon politician, and moved on to being a legal secretary at Arrowhead Water where she took many pages of dictation as her shorthand skills were excellent. Later she moved on to work for Northrop in military relations where she worked for eleven years as an executive secretary. She met many VIP's which included taking an art class with Jeanne Crain from noted artist Sergei Bongart, and going to Mitzi Gaynor's birthday party with a friend. She married a VW agency owner next and traveled extensively plus they raised Arabian horses in Rolling Hills and they lived in Huntington Beach where she became quite a sailor as they enjoyed boating. She also learned the game of bridge while living there. Her present husband is a World War II war hero from Czechoslovakia. He was with the underground and was captured, escaped, captured again, and finally escaped to Salzburg where the American Army helped him. The couple moved to Temecula and bridge became an important pastime and as a life master she plays often. Her thoughts include "follow your dreams", she used to dream of being a dress designer; "the third time is a charm", referring to marriage; and show love to your family. ANSWER IN NEXT MONTHS CHATTER
