NOTICE OF ELECTION TO THE BOARD

The election of Board Members is scheduled for October. Information and ballots should be available at your local club.

(As they say in Chicago — "Vote Early and Often.")

Note from your Chatter Editor — The Chatter is a little sparse and just on deadline (I hope) because I am in Boise, ID helping my friend and partner, Ted Witt of Sun Valley, ID, at the Boise Sectional to become the newest Life Master in Idaho! Ted has played in many of our games so I hope you can excuse me this time.

BRIDGE BITES

from The American Contract Bridge League

DELIGHTFUL DECEPTION

By: Brian Gunnell

The game of bridge is enriched by many beautiful plays and stratagems, and we all love to talk about our latest Trump Coup or Double Squeeze. But even that pales into insignificance when compared to the fun we get from hoodwinking the opponents with a deceptive play. There's nothing a bridge player enjoys more than a little bit of larceny!

	♠ 652 ♥ 874 ♦ A654 ♣ A64
♠ AKJ ♥ 6532 ♦ JT9 ♣ 987	North West East South	♠ 43 ♥ QT9 ♦ Q873 ♣ JT53
	♠ QT987 ♥ AKJ ♦ K2 ♣ KQ2

The N-S auction goes 1♠-2♠-4♠. West leads ♦J and when Dummy goes down it's apparent that the success of the contract depends upon not losing three Spades and one Heart. It's a simple hand, wouldn't you say? Declarer wins the Diamond lead in Dummy, and finesses the ♠T, losing to West's Jack. Oh, well, now there are three sure trump losers and Declarer uses Dummy's sole remaining entry to take the Heart finesse. That works, and it's 10 tricks for Declarer, losing just three trumps.

Rewind! That was easy for Declarer, but only because West made it so. On the first round of trumps, when Declarer finessed the ♠T, a more wily West would have played the Ace (or King)! This doesn't cost anything as West still scores three trump tricks eventually. Now, a bamboozled Declarer crosses to Dummy for the last time and repeats the Spade finesse (which he "knows" will work), rather than take the Heart finesse (which may not work). Beating 4♠ by one trick? A fine result! The look on Declarer's face when the second Spade finesse loses? Priceless!
